About Karnatak University, Dharwad

Karnatak University was established under the Karnatak University Act, 1949, and became a statutory university on 1st March 1950. Recognized as the second oldest university in Karnataka, it serves the districts of Dharwad, Gadag, Haveri, and Uttara Kannada. Spread across 888 acres at Pavate Nagar, the University offers programmes in Arts, Commerce, Education, Law, Management, Science and Technology, and Social Sciences. Its motto, “Arive Guru” meaning “Wisdom is Guru,” reflects its commitment to knowledge and enlightenment. The University was re-accredited with an “A” Grade by National Assessment and Accreditation Council in 2022.

About Dharwad

Dharwad, popularly known as “Vidya Kashi” and “Pedha Nagari,” is a prominent educational and cultural center of Karnataka. The city is known for its peaceful environment, rich literary heritage, and Hindustani classical music tradition. Dharwad has produced eminent personalities like D. R. Bendre, Pandit Bhimsen Joshi, and Gangubai Hangal. Famous for Dharwad Pedha, the city offers an ideal atmosphere for academic conferences and scholarly gatherings.

About Research Centre for Women’s Studies
